To

All Additional Central. P. F. Commissioner (Zones),
All Regional P. F. Commissioner (I) in-charge of the Regions.

Sub: Stepping up of pay of Assistants (re-designated as Sr. SSA) at par with their juniors who were promoted as Sr. SSA (TBP) under Time Bound Promotion Scheme on completion of 17 years clerical service-

Sir,

On the basis of representations received from several Regions, and from All India EPF Staff Federation for removal of pay anomaly arisen due to grant of pay scale of Rs.5500-9000 to Sr. Social Security Assistant (TBP) who were promoted under Time Bound Promotion Scheme on completion of 17 years' of clerical service and in the pay of Assistant [re-designated as Sr. Social Security Assistant] being senior to Sr. Social Security Assistant(TBP) but continued in the pay scale of 5000-8000 (pre-revised).

2. The matter has been examined in consultation with Finance Wing of Head office and keeping in view the instructions of DOP & T, the Competent Authority is pleased to approve the stepping up of pay of seniors (Sr. Social Security Assistant) to bring it at par with their juniors [Sr. Social Security Assistant (TBP) as on 31.03.2004]. Pay will be fixed under Rule FR 22(1)(a)(2) w.e.f. 01.04.2004 notionally and financial benefits are payable w.e.f. 01.09.2007 i.e. from the date from which Sr. Social Security Assistant(TBP) were given the monetary benefits under the up-graded scale of Rs. 5500-9000 (pre-revised).

3. All Regional P. F. Commissioner's are therefore requested to allow stepping up in such cases where Assistants (now, Sr. Social Security Assistant) are drawing less pay than their juniors [Sr. Social Security Assistant (TBP)] accordingly. The compliance report may please be furnished to this office on or before 30th Sep. 2010.

Yours faithfully,

(R K KUREJA)

Regional Provident Fund Commissioner (HR)
